Num. 324

SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1744.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.
Moscow, June 8.

On the 3d her Imperial Majesty, dress'd in the Amazonian Uniform of the Regiment of Ismailow, went to take the Diversion of Hunting in the Park; on which Occasion, her Imperial Majesty was accompanied by the Grand Duke of Russia, and the Princesses of Anhalt Zerbst, with a very numerous Train of Attendants. In the Evening, her Imperial Majesty and their Royal Highnesses sup'd at the Table of Count Rasumowski, at several Tables; and the was followed by a very splendid Ball, which lasted till Morning. On the 7th her Imperial Majesty set out on her Pilgrimage for Troitz, which she proposes to perform on Foot, in the Space of three Days, as it is distant from hence nine German Leagues. The Grand Duke, and the Princesses, are to go thither in Coach. Of late abundance of Pieces of News, that have been talk'd of here as Things certain in Agitation, now own'd to be absolutely false and groundless; such as that a Body of Troops were to be assembled in the Neighbourhood of Kiow; that a great Number of Troops were to be transported to Sweden; and that a strong Squadron will shortly put to Sea; whereas this Squadron consists only of five Men of War and eight Gallies, and will not go beyond Hochlande; and many people doubt, whether it will put to Sea at all. Her Imperial Majesty proposes, shortly, to send a Minister Plenipotentiary to reside at the Court of the Emperor of the Romans. Lord Tyrawley, and Baron Holsheim, are the Foreign Ministers most consider'd at Court.

Stockholm, June 15. This Morning his Royal Highness the elected Successor to this Crown, set out, accompanied by the Senator Count de Rosen, Gen. Spence, and the two Barons de Mornea, for Gottenbourg; where he will review the Troops at present in Garrison, and then proceed on a Progress thro' the Southern Provinces of this Kingdom, so as to arrive at Carlskroon about the Middle of July. The Senator Baron Wrangle, has, at last, obtained his Dismission, which he had so long solicited. General Keith has given publick Notice, that he who have any Demands, either on the Officers or Soldiers, in the Army under his Command, were to bring them in immediately, in order to receive Satisfaction. These Troops are to rendezvous at Norrtelge, where the Gallies are actually arriv'd that are to transport them; and we now know for certain, that they are to be landed near Danzick, and are to continue their Route by Land, to the Place of their Destination.

June 20. On the 16th of this Month the Croats belonging to the Army of Prince Lobkowitz, attack'd two of the advanc'd Posts of the Spanish Army, and carried them, after an obstinate Resistance; and, at the same Time, made themselves Masters of six Pieces of Cannon. In the Evening, the Count de Gages caus'd the Croats to be attack'd with such Fury, that they were forc'd, not only to abandon the Posts, and six Pieces of Cannon which they had taken, but also another Post of very great Consequence to the Austrians, with four Pieces of their own Cannon; and, at the same Time, 600 Men, amongst whom were some Officers of Distinction, were made Prisoners of War. As soon as Prince Lobkowitz had Advice of this Accident, he sent away his Baggage to St. Marino, to reach which Place, they march'd all Night; and the next Day his Highness follow'd them with all his Army. The Governor of Rome, to avoid Accidents, order'd the Gates of the City to be shut during the whole March, and did not open them till the Guards were reinforc'd. On the 18th we had Intelligence, that Prince Lobkowitz, by this forc'd Retreat, having drawn the Spaniards and Neapolitans into a Place where it was very possible to come to a fair Engagement, fac'd about, and attack'd them with so much Valour, that he regain'd all the Ground he had lost, and is even advanc'd a Mile nearer Veletri, than he was before. We have no exact Account of the Loss on one Side or the other; only we know it must have been very considerable, since, after the Austrians had transported such as were dangerously wounded to Marino and Castel Gondolfo, they sent to Monte Rotundo 17 Waggon's full of wounded Men. The two Armies are again entrench'd, and when Prince Lobkowitz reconnoitred the Enemy on the 19th, he found every Thing in so good a Posture, that he has contented himself with cannonading them ever since. We since hear, that the Action was more considerable than was at first believed; and that the Loss on both Sides, amounts about 1200 Men.

P. S. An Express is just arriv'd, with an Account, that the Austrian Hussars having surprized the Town of Abruzzo, were join'd by several Neapolitan Gentlemen, in the Interest of the Queen of Hungary; but were attacked by General Landini, who commands at Pescara, and dislodg'd, with the Loss of 300 Men killed, and 400 taken Prisoners; among whom were several Neapolitans, whom the General hang'd upon the Spot.

Durin, June 20. On Thursday last arriv'd an Express from Garlino, with the News, that the Spaniards seem'd to be making Dispositions for quitting Oagila; and Yesterday arriv'd a Courier from Sorgia, which confirm'd that News; and also brought Advice, that they had likewise quitted Dolce-Aqua, Pylia, Buglia, and Soppello. The Infant Don Philip has, it seems, either thought it prudent, or been compell'd, contrary to his own Judgment, to follow the Scheme of the Prince of Conti; that is, to abandon all the new Conquests, to repass the Varre, and to begin the whole Affair afresh, by besieging Coni and Chateau Dauphine. We do not doubt, but that this Proceeding must have created great Animosity in the Enemy's Councils; and as his Majesty sets out in a few Days, to put himself at the Head of the Forces that are to defend the Passes on the Side of Dauphiny, we flatter ourselves, with the Blessing of God, that we shall meet with equal Success there.

Vienno, June 24. There have been, within these five Days, three general Councils held; the last on the 22d, to which the Ambassador from the Republick of Venice, and the British Minister, were invited. It is said to have turn'd upon a certain Negotiation, now upon the Carpet, for engaging the Venetians to furnish a very considerable Body of Troops, for the Queen's Service in Italy. The same Day the Pope's Nuncio had an Audience of her Majesty; since which a Report is spread, that Prince Lobkowitz has defeated the Spanish and Neapolitan Armies. The Traitor Colneri has had his Sentence of Death notified to him; but we do not hear that he has offer'd to make any Confession. The Marquis de Botta is conducted, by a strong Guard, to Gratz. His Affairs seem to be but in a bad Situation; and we talk now, more than ever, of concluding, speedily, a new Alliance with Russia.

Frankfort, June 2. Prince Charles of Lorraine visit'd lately all his advanc'd Posts on the Rhine; which River rising extremely high, the Imperial Army have thought fit to pass it, and are now on the same Side with the French. It is very certain, that his Imperial Majesty has lately concluded some Treaties, very advantageous to his Interest, with several Princes of Germany; but it is likewise certain, that these Princes are not oblig'd to act, unless the Imperialists are actually attack'd.

Hague, June 9. According to our last Letters from Flanders, the Duke de Harcourt was advanc'd with his Army, and a very numerous Train of Artillery, as far as the Bridge of Espierres upon the Scheld; but tho' many People here are apprehensive, that after Furnes has surrendered, the French will immediately invest Tournay, we are still of Opinion, that this is not their real Design, but that they will next besiege Neuport; and that all these Motions, on the Side of Tournay, are only intended to harass the Allies, and to prevent their attempting a Diversion. In the mean time, however, we neglect nothing requisite for the Security of that Place. The Garrison of Tournay, at this Juncture, consisting of five complete Regiments of Dutch Foot, two Troops of Horse, two Companies of Miners, fifty Cannoners, besides several Detachments from English, Scotch, and Hanoverian Regiments, a Party of Austrian Dragoons, and 40 Hussars: The Dutch Regiments of Prororius and Waldeck are encamp'd so near it, as to be able to enter the Place at Pleasure; which is provided with Ammunition, and other Necessaries, for six Months. Several Foreign Ministers have received Advice, that Prince Charles of Lorraine, having caus'd General Nadasti to pass the Rhine, with 12000 Men, near Ketsch, which is above the Neckar, immediately reinforced him with 18000 more; while his Highness pass'd in the Night, between the 2d and 3d, a little below the Neckar, with his whole Army; by which he has gain'd an Opportunity of investing the City of Strassbourg, and putting the French Army between two Fires; and has it also in his Power to change the whole Face of Affairs in the Netherlands. It is impossible to express the Joy this good News has occasioned; and it is not doubted, but, in a few Days, we shall learn many advantageous Consequences of so well conducted an Action.

Mr. Grant	1645

On Monday next a new Song (set to Musick by Mr. Howard) will be sung at Ruckholt House by the Two Miss Scotts. Hummeton and Temple-Mills Turnpikes will be Toll-free.

Yesterday Morning arriv'd a Messenger at Baron Walsener's. Minister from the Queen of Hungary, with an Account, that Prince Charles of Lorraine had pass'd the Rhine with an Army of 50,000 Men.

And that another General, belonging to the Queen of Hungary, had likewise pass'd the Rhine at Philipsburgh, with an Army of 30,000 Men.

The same Day a Messenger arriv'd at Prince Cherbaw's, Ambassador from the Empress of Russia, who brought an Account (as we are well assur'd) that M. de Chardie, Ambassador from France to that Court, had received Orders to depart in an Hour's time; their being a Discovery made of a Conspiracy against the Empress, which, as we are credibly inform'd, was done by his Excellency the Lord Tyrawley, his Majesty's Ambassador at that Court.

Yesterday was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordships were pleased to appoint Lieutenant Dennis, who came home in the Centurion with Commodore Anson, to be Captain of the Spence Sloop.

Extract of a Letter from Kinsale, dated June 17, 1744.

Our Harbours now begins to look as if we really were in War with France; but before, as if we were in Jest. We have now here seven or eight fine Ships, and some more off the Harbour; among which are two Prizes, brought in here Yesterday, by as bold an Attempt as you ever heard of; and which, I think, deserves to be made publick. — An English Privateer, belonging to Bristol, cruising on the Spanish Coast, happened to come up with an English Vessel from Carolina, that had been just before taken by a Spanish Privateer, and retook her with a great deal of Ease, being no Ship of Force, and but a few Spaniards on board her, only enough to bring her into Port. All the English Sailors, but two, had been put on board the Spanish Privateer, who gave our Privateer Intelligence, that the Privateer who took them, had also taken two other large Vessels belonging to Bristol; one from the West Indies, with Sugar and Rum; the other from the Coast of Guiney, very richly laden; and that the Spaniards had taken the Guiney Man's Cargo out, and put it on board the West-India Man; and that she then lay with both Cargoes on board, in a little Harbour near Cape Finister, under the Protection of a small Fort which mounted about 20 Guns. They then consulted together on board the Privateer, whether there was a Possibility of getting her out; but the Captain's Opinion was, it would be Madness to attempt so rash an Undertaking. However, the Lieutenant told him, that if he would give him but ten Men, and the Longboat, he would engage his Life, that before next Morning he would make himself Master of that Prize. The Captain complied with his Desire; and in the Night, about 11 o'Clock, they enter'd the Harbour, rowed up alongside the Prize, and jumped on board, while the poor Spaniards were carousing for Joy of their imaginary Fortunes; which put them into such a Surprise, that some cried out for Quarter, while others jumped out of the Cabin Windows into the Sea; by which our Sailors remained Masters of the Prize, immediately flipt the Cables, and, the Wind favouring, gently passed the Fort, without disturbing them out of their Sleep; and now they lie here as safe as their Hearts can wish, and have made such huzzzing, and firing of Guns, that one would imagine the Town was besieged. When our Sailors came on board, the Spaniards were 60 in Number; but several jumped into their Longboat, and run ashore; the rest are here. Their Cargo is Rum and Sugar from the West Indies; and from Guiney, ten Ton of Elephants Teeth, 20 Ton of Indigo, 20 Ton of Logwood, and other Dying Stuff, and a vast deal of Cochineal, and some Gold Dust.

Extract of another Letter from the same Place, of the same Date.

Yesterday arrived here the Dursley Galley, late of Bristol, laden with Rum, Sugar, and Elephants Teeth; and the —, late of Carolina, laden with Rice, &c. both Prizes taken by the Vulture Privateer of Bristol, of 16 Guns and 150 Men. They had both been taken by the Spaniards, and were in their Possession about 15 Days. The former lay in a little Harbour 3 Leagues East of Cape Finister, under a Battery of 28 Guns. The Vulture sent in her Longboat with 16 Hands, who rowed up easily under the Battery, and got up undisturbed; then boarded, surprized them, cut her Cables, and brought her off. There were some Pistols fired, but no Man hurt on either Side. In the midst of the Hurry, the Spanish Captain, and several of his Crew, jumped out of the Cabin Windows, and carried off Gold Dust, &c. to a considerable Value, as they say. The Spaniards had 72 Men on board when attacked by those 16. The Vulture sunk a French Ship, after a smart Engagement, and ran another ashore; where she fell to Pieces, and the Vulture's People got but very little out of her. These two Prizes parted 15 Days ago from the Vulture, and had Orders to proceed Homewards, and left her in Chase of two large Ships.

Yesterday Twenty Prisoners were tried at the Old Bailey, one of whom was capitally Convicted; viz.

James Guiland, who kept a Shop and Publick-House in St. Katherine's, on the Evidence of Francis Sherlock and Mary Ogden, for uttering and publishing a forged and counterfeit Will, for the true Will of one Robert Callaway, knowing it to be forged, &c.

Twelve were cast for Transportation; one of whom was John Johnson, a noted Receiver of Stolen Goods in Rosemary-lane. And Seven Acquitted.

Dr. ROBERT EATON'S
BALSAMICK STYPTICK,
Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dwelling House, now Mrs. DUTTON's, in Salisbury-Court, Fleet-street.

THIS Medicine restrains, in a most surprizing Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoids or Menstrues; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (if used according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, in all Climates; therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtaining his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine; but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting this Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. The late Learned Dr. CHEYNE, in his Excellent Piece, entitled The Natural Method of curing the Diseases of the Body, &c. prefers Eaton's Styptic to Helvetius' and other Stypticks; and speaks of it as follows: — Every one knows the agglutinating Quality of sweet Blood, and I apprehend it is to this, that Eaton's Styptic owes its soft, mild, soldering Efficacy. — It is more mild, substantial and soft, than the mildest Steel Preparations, and more fit to patch a Hole, or glaze up a Rupture, or to give a Balsam to the acrid and inflaming Blood of the Patient. He says, he is confirmed in this by a Physician of great Worth and Candor, who has great Opportunities of dealing in such Cases, by his Practice in Midwifery. See p. 102.

This Day is Published,
NUMBER XVIII and XIX,
And next Saturday will be Published Number XX and XXI.

To be Continued Two NUMBERS every Week, Containing Five Sheets in Folio, each No. for six Pence.

This Day is Published,
NUMBER I
Of the SECOND VOLUME of
THE Harleian Miscellany: Or, a Collection of scarce, curious, and entertaining Tracts and Pamphlets, found in the late Earl of Oxford's Library. CONTAINING,

I. Judge Thore's Charge to the Grand Jury of York, clearly epitomizing the Statutes of this Nation, which, as a golden Rule, ought to regulate the several Actions and Conditions of Men; and being duly observed, do promote the Peace and Plenty of the Commonwealth.

II. A Representation of the present State of Religion with Regard to the late excessive Growth of Infidelity, Heresy, and Profaneness, &c.

III. The Bloody Parliament, in the Reign of an unhappy Prince.

IV. Strange News from Plymouth: Or, A wonderful and tragical Relation of a Voyage from the Indies, in which, for Want of Provisions, the Crew and Passengers eat each other's Flesh, and eat one another, amongst whom, a Dutch Merchant eat Part of his own Children, and at last murdered himself, because he would not kill his Wife, &c.

V. The Quacks Academy: Or, the Dunces Directory, covering the several Methods whereby so many ignorant Pretenders in Physick obtain Reputation and Practice.

VI. Vindex Anglicus: Or, The Perfections of the English Language defended and asserted.

VII. The Honour of the Gout: Or, A rational Discourse, demonstrating that the Gout is one of the greatest Blessings, which can befall mortal Man; that all Gentlemen, who are weary of it, are their own Enemies; and that those Physicians, who offer at the Cure, are the vainest and most mischievous Cheats in the Nation.

Interpers'd with Historical, Political, and Critical Notes.

Printed for T. Osborne, in Gray's-Inn; and sold by J. Robinson, at the Golden Lion, in Ludgate-street. Where Proposals at large, with an Account of this Undertaking, may be had gratis, and of all Bookellers both in Town and Country.

The late vigorous Attempts of the Emiffaries of Rome, to diffuse their poisonous Tenets among a free and Protestant People, and that under the happy Government of an illustrious Protestant Prince, must raise in every sober and generous Mind a just Indignation against them, and a tender Compassion to the Weak and Ignorant, who are most exposed to these horrid Delusions. Surely, never did any Thing, that was the sacred Name of Religion, appear in the World, so manifestly absurd and detestable as Popery, which is a cruel Contradiction to Reason and Revelation, to Morality and Common Sense, and to all the dear Interests of Civil Society of Liberty, Conscience, and Eternal Salvation.
